

We are the market leader for depositing equipment in Europe. Our customers in the food-processing industry benefit from unique products, our know-how and an outstanding service. As a family-run business the hallmarks for cooperation with our customers, partners, employees and suppliers are fairness, trust and respect.

Are you interested in technics, innovation and new technologies?

To strengthen our team in the long term we are searching for a

Mechatronics Engineer as Service Technician (m/f/d) in full-time

Place of work is Lörrach/Germany with willingness to travel up to 40% within Europe

Your tasks

- Commissioning of our systems & production lines and training of customers within Europe
- Technical customer service and support (telephone, email, video call, on site)
- Operation, repair, service and maintenance of our systems incl. error detection and troubleshooting
- Handling of complaints
- Support the management of inventory and materials

Your qualifications

- Completed vocational training in the field of mechatronics, electronics or similar
- Expertise in control technology and programming skills are desired
- High customer- and service orientation and good communication skills in English and German
- Professional experience in comparable position and industry knowledge are of advantage
- Self-employed and reliable way of working, personal initiative and team spirit

Your benefits

- Thorough initial training with personal mentor
- Working from home, parental leave, job-e-bike etc. are not only part of our corporate philosophy, we also practice it!
- Very attractive conditions and additional social benefits
- Convincing development opportunities
- Open corporate culture with shorts decision-making paths
- Promotion of solidarity away from the daily business through team events
- Long-term cooperation, mutual acceptance and esteem are the basis of our corporate culture

Are you looking forward to this new challenge and to becoming part of our team?

We are looking forward to getting to know you.

Please send your application via email to Tobias Hornsteiner (tobiash@unifiller-europe.com).

Starting date: From 01.09.2021

With pleasure we will answer your questions beforehand on the phone. Please call +49 7621 583 6312.